INDIA ↔ ICELAND

PLAN THE ROUTE

Your first week in Iceland

A relaxed Reykjavík, Golden Circle and South Coast example. Adapt the route to weather, daylight and your flight times.

Overnight bases

Day	Suggested plan	Sleep in
1	Arrive, transfer and rest	Reykjavík
2	Explore Reykjavík	Reykjavík
3	Golden Circle; return to base	Reykjavík
4	Waterfalls and South Coast	Vík area
5	A slower day around Vík	Vík area
6	Return west; weather buffer	Reykjavík / KEF area
7	Airport journey and departure	—

The route at a glance

Route order only; not to scale. Golden Circle returns to Reykjavík in this example. Travel east to Vík on day 4 and return west on day 6.

Make the plan fit your trip

Winter: reduce outdoor stops and consider Reykjavík-based guided day trips. If Jökulsárlón is a priority, add an overnight farther east and remove another part of the plan. Do not add it as a rushed extra.

Your travel checklist

Print this page or keep it offline. Add your own dates, addresses and booking details before leaving home.

Before you book

- [ ] Check official entry / visa requirements for your passport.
- [ ] Compare the complete budget: flights, rooms, transport, food and activities.
- [ ] Check cancellation terms, pickup points and accessibility needs.

Before you fly

- [ ] Save passport / visa copies, insurance and booking details securely.
- [ ] Confirm airport transfers both ways and the first hotel’s check-in time.
- [ ] Share dietary requirements and plan a simple backup meal.
- [ ] Save addresses, emergency contacts and relevant maps offline.

Pack for the actual activities

- [ ] Base and insulating layers; windproof / waterproof outer layers.
- [ ] Warm hat, gloves, suitable footwear and a dry spare layer.
- [ ] Regular medicines, required documents, chargers and travel adapter.
- [ ] Day bag, refillable bottle, snacks and swimwear if needed.

Every travel day

- [ ] Check the forecast, road conditions and destination alerts.
- [ ] Allow time for meals, rest, parking and hotel check-in.
- [ ] Shorten or change the plan when conditions require it.
